This ambitious, growing series addresses various angles of the “Holocaust” of the WWII era. Most of them are based on decades of research from archives all over the world. They are heavily footnoted and referenced. In contrast to most other works on this issue, the tomes of this series approach its topic with profound academic scrutiny and a critical attitude. Any Holocaust aficionado ignoring this series will remain oblivious to some of the most important research in the field. These books are designed to both convince the common reader as well as academicians. The following books have appeared so far; many are available as free eBooks at www.HolocaustHandbooks.com; compare hardcopy prices at BOOKFINDER.COM

SECTION ONE: General Overviews of the Holocaust

The First Holocaust: Jewish Fundraising Campaigns With Holocaust Claims During and After World War One. A documentation of post-WWII propaganda claiming 6 million Jews were on the brink of annihilation. It details how Jewish fundraising operations in America raised vast sums in the name of feeding suffering Poles and Russians but actually funneled much of the money to Zionist and Communist groups. 5th ed., 198 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#31)

Lectures on the Holocaust, Controversial Issues Cross Examined. By German Rudolf. An encyclopedic overview of revisionist research results, presented in a dialog style. Rudolf introduces the most important arguments for his findings, and his audience reacts with supportive, skeptical and also hostile questions. We believe this book is the best summary of this taboo topic. 3rd ed., 596 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#6)

Breaking the Spell: The Holocaust Myth & Reality. By Nicholas Kollerstrom. In 1942 and 1943, British Intelligence intercepted German radio communications between concentration camps and the Berlin headquarters. Dr. Kollerstrom, a science historian, has taken these intercepts and a wide array of mostly unchallenged corroborating evidence to show that “witness statements” supporting the gas-chamber narrative clash with the available scientific data. He concludes that the history of the Nazi “Holocaust” has been written by the victors with ulterior motives. With a foreword by Prof. Jim Fetzer. 4th ed., 261 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#91)

Debating the Holocaust: A New Look at Both Sides. By Thomas Dalton. Mainstream historians insist that there cannot be, may not be, a debate about the Holocaust. But ignoring it does not make this controversy go away. Dalton juxtaposes the traditional Holocaust narrative with revisionist challenges and then analyzes the mainstream’s responses to them. He reveals the weaknesses of both sides, while declaring revisionism the winner of the current state of the debate. 3rd ed., 332 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#92)

The Hoax of the Twentieth Century. The Case against the Presumed Extermination of European Jewry. By Arthur R. Butz. All major entities hostile to Germany must have known what was happening to the Jews under German authority, yet they acted as if no mass slaughter was occurring. Evidence adduced to prove any mass slaughter has a dual interpretation, while only the innocuous one can be proven to be correct. This edition has numerous supplements with new information. 4th ed., 524 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#7)

Dissecting the Holocaust: The Growing Critique of Truth & Memory. By Germar Rudolf. This book reports state-of-the-art scientific technique and classic methods of detection to investigate the alleged murder of millions of Jews by Germans during World War II. In 22 contributions—each of up to 30 pp.—the 17 authors dissect generally accepted paradigms of the “Holocaust.” It reads as exciting as a crime novel. 2nd ed., 616 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#1)

The Dissolution of Eastern European Jewry. By Walter N. Sanning. Six Million Jews died in the Holocaust. Sanning did not take that number at face value, but thoroughly explored European population developments and shifts mainly caused by emigration as well as deportations and evacuations conducted by both Nazis and the Soviets, among other things. The book concludes that a sizeable share of Jews survived in the countries and possibly in neighboring ones during local censuses after the Second World War had either emigrated (mainly to Israel or the U.S.) or had been deported by Stalin to Siberian labor camps. 224 pp., b&w ill., bibl. (#29).

Air Photo Evidence: World War Two Photos of Alleged Mass Murder Sites Analyzed. By G. Rudolf (ed.). During WWII both German and Allied reconnaissance aircraft took countless aerial photographs of places of tactical and strategic interest. These photos are prime evidence for the investigation of the Holocaust. Air photos of locations like Auschwitz, Maidanek, Treblinka, Bab Yar etc. permit an insight into what did or did not happen there. According to the author, these images refute many of the outrageously high claims made by witnesses in connection with events in the German sphere of influence. 5th ed., 168 pp., 8.5”x11”, b&w ill., bibl., index. (#27)

The Giant with Feet of Clay: Raul Hilberg and His Standard Work on the “Holocaust.” By Jürgen Graf. Raul Hilberg’s major work The Destruction of European Jewry is an orthodoxy standard work on the Holocaust. Jürgen Graf applies the methods of critical analysis to Hilberg’s evidence and examines the results in light of modern historiography. The results of Graf’s critical analysis are devastating for Hilberg. 2nd ed., 139 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#5)

Jewish Emigration from the Third Reich. By Ingrid Weckert. Current historical writings about the Third Reich paint a bleak picture regarding its treatment of Jewish citizens. The truth is that the emigration was welcomed and supported by the German authorities. Weckert’s booklet elucidates the emigration process in law and policy. 2nd ed., 130 pp., b&w ill., bibliog., index. (#12)

Inside the Gas Chambers: The Extermination of Jews at Auschwitz. By Carlo Mattogno. In 2011, the Holocaust Orthodoxy published a book claiming to refute “revisionist propaganda,” trying again to prove “once and for all” that there were homicidal gas chambers at the camps of Dachau, Natzweiler, Sachsenhausen, Mauthausen, Ravensbrück, Neuen- gamme, Stutthof... you name them. Mattogno shows with his detailed that mainstream Holocaust hagiography is beating around the bush rather than addressing revisionist research results. 268 pp., b&w ill., bibl. (#25)
SECTION TWO: Books on Specific Camps

Treblinka: Extermination Camp or Transit Camp? By C. Mattogno and J. Graf. It is alleged that at Treblinka between 700,000 and 3,000,000 persons were murdered. Claims about the murder weapons vary wildly, as do claims about how the corpses vanished. The origins and technical feasibility of this narrative are analyze. 365 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#8)

Belzec in Propaganda, Testimonies, Archeological Research and History. By C. Mattogno. Between 600,000 and 3 million Jews were allegedly murdered in the Belzec camp. The stories are at variance with those about Treblinka. In contrast to Treblinka, forensic drillings and excavations were performed at Belzec, the results of which are also critically reviewed. 138 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#9)

Sobibor: Holocaust Propaganda and Reality. By J. Graf, Thomas Kues and C. Mattogno. Between 25,000 and 2 million Jews were allegedly killed in the Sobibor camp. Here too, the claims critically reviewed and analyzed resemble those made about Treblinka. Archeological surveys of the camp are analyzed, with fatal results for the extermination camp hypothesis. 454 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#10)

The “Extermination Camps” of “Aktion Reinhard”. By Jürgen Graf, T. Kues and C. Mattogno. In late 2011, several members of the exterminationist Holocaust Controversies blog published a study, which allegedly refutes three of our authors’ monographs on the camps Belzec, Babi Yar and Treblinka (see previous 3 entries). This is their point-by-point response. 2 vols., total of 1385 pp., ill., bibl. (#28)

Chelmno: A Camp in History & Propaganda. By C. Mattogno. As many as 1.3 million inmates are said to have been killed here. Eyewitness statements, excavations, crematoria, building plans, documents, gas vans for homicidal purposes—all are discussed. 191 pp., indexed, illustrated, bibl. (#23)

The Gas Vans: A Critical Investigation. By Santiago Alvarez and Pierre Marais. It is alleged that the Nazis used mobile gas chambers to exterminate 700,000 people. Are witness statements reliable? Are documents genuine? Where have the weapons operated as claimed? Where are the corpses? 390 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#26)

The Einsatzgruppen in the Occupied Eastern Territories: Genesis, Responsibilities and Activities. By C. Mattogno. The German Einsatzgruppen are said to have mass-murdered Jews in the Eastern territories during WWII. This study reviews all pertinent sources as well as material traces to find out what really happened. Ca. 850 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (late 2018; #39)

Concentration Camp Maidanek. A Historical and Technical Study. By C. Mattogno and J. Graf. Up to two million Jews were allegedly murdered in the Maidanek camp. After exhaustive research of primary sources, Mattogno and Graf expertly dissect and expunge the myth of homicidal gas chambers at Maidanek. 3rd ed., 350 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#5)

Concentration Camp Stutthof and Its Function in National Socialist Jewish Policy. By C. Mattogno and Jürgen Graf. The concentration camp at Stutthof has always been scientifically investigated by Western historians—until now. 2nd ed., 128 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#4)

SECTION THREE: Auschwitz Studies

The Making of the Auschwitz Myth. By C. Mattogno. Using messages sent by the Polish underground to London, SS radio messages intercepted by the British, and witness statements made during and right after the war, the authors present their argument that Auschwitz gas chamber was created. Ca. 300 pp., ill., bibl., index. (mid-2018; #41)

The Real Case of Auschwitz. By C. Mattogno. Prof. Robert van Pelt is considered one of the best mainstream experts on Auschwitz. This book is a scholarly response to Prof. van Pelt. It shows that his studies are heavily flawed. 2nd ed., 758 pp., b&w ill., glossary, index. (#22)

Auschwitz: Plain Facts: A Response to Jean-Claude Pressac. Edited by G. Rudolf. French pharmacist Jean-Claude Pressac tried to refute revisionist findings with the “technical” method. For this he was praised by the mainstream. In Auschwitz: Plain Facts, Pressac’s works and claims are debunked. 2nd ed., 226 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#14)

The Chemistry of Auschwitz: The Technology and Toxicology of Zyklon B and the Gas Chambers. By G. Rudolf. Zyklon B reacts with mor tar, forming a long-lasting blue pigment. It can be found in the Auschwitz delousing chambers, but not in the claimed homicidal gas chambers. Why? Does this prove that no gassings happened? Rudolf investigates and comes up with a clear answer. 3rd ed., 457 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#22)

Auschwitz Lies: Legends, Lies and Prejudices on the Holocaust. By C. Mattogno and G. Rudolf. A number of mainstream scholars have tried to refute revisionist findings on the Holocaust. Here their claims are exposed for what they are: blatant and easily exposed political lies created to ostracize dissident historians. 3rd ed., 406 pp., b&w ill., index. (#18)

Auschwitz: The Central Construction Office. By C. Mattogno. A description of the history, organization, tasks and procedures of the Central Construction Office at Auschwitz, the office which was responsible for the planning and construction of the Auschwitz camp, including the alleged gas chambers. 182 pp., b&w ill., glossary. (#13)

Special Treatment in Auschwitz: Origin and Meaning of a Term. By C. Mattogno. When appearing in German wartime documents, terms like “special treatment,” “special action,” and “special measures” are used. The author proves this is not true. 2nd ed., 166 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#10)

Healthcare at Auschwitz. By C. Mattogno. This study shows the extent to which the German authorities at Auschwitz tried to provide appropriate health care for the inmates. It also explores what happened to inmates subjected to “special treatment.” 398 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (2016; #33)

Debunking the Bunkers of Auschwitz: Black Propaganda vs. History. By C. Mattogno. Some 250,000 Jews are said to have been killed at Auschwitz in two former farm houses converted into gas chambers. With the help of original documents, this study shows that these “bunkers” never existed, and how war propaganda was transformed into a false reality. 2nd ed., 292 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#11)

Auschwitz: The First Gassing—Rumor and Reality. By C. Mattogno. The first gassing in Auschwitz is claimed to have occurred on Sept. 3, 1941, in a basement room. This study shows that the sources contradict each other in every respect. Original wartime documents inflict a final blow. 3rd ed., 190 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#20)

Auschwitz: Crematorium I and the Alleged Homicidal Gassings. By C. Mattogno. The morgue of Crematorium I in Auschwitz is said to be the first homicidal gas chamber there. This study accurately describes the history of that building. Mattogno proves that its morgue was never a homicidal gas chamber, nor could it have worked as such. 138 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#21)

Auschwitz: Open Air Incinerations. By C. Mattogno. Hundreds of thousands of corpses of murder victims are claimed to have been incinerated in deep ditches at Auschwitz. Using aerial photographs, physical evidence and wartime documents, the author shows that these claims are fiction. 132 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#17)

The Cremation Furnaces of Auschwitz. By C. Mattogno and Frank Deana. An exhaustive study of the history and technology of cremation in general and of the cremation furnaces of Auschwitz in particular. It reveals that the Auschwitz cremation furnaces were innocuous devices. 3 vols., 1198 pp., b&w and color ill. (vols 2 & 3), bibl., index, glossary. (#24)

Curated Lies: The Auschwitz Museum’s Misrepresentations, Deceptions By C. Mattogno. The Auschwitz Museum is a mendacious organization, lying both to millions of tourists and to serious scholars about the true nature of the Auschwitz camp. Here is the proof. 248 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#38)

SECTION FOUR: Witness Critique

Holocaust High Priest: Elie Wiesel, Night, the Memory Cult, and the Rise of Revisionism. By Warren B. Routledge. This biography of Wiesel exposes his many personal deceits. It shows how Zionist control has allowed Wiesel to force world leaders to genuflect before him as symbolic ancestors. 468 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#30)

Auschwitz: Confessions and Testimonies. By J. Graf. The traditional narrative of what transpired at Auschwitz rests almost exclusively on witness testimony. This study scrutinizes the 40 most important of these statements. The result is devastating for the traditional narrative. (Scheduled for late 2016; #36)

Commandant of Auschwitz: Rudolf Höss, His Torture and His Forced Confessions. By C. Mattogno. Höss, the former Auschwitz commandant, was captured by the British after the war. This study reveals how the British tortured him to extract various “confessions.” Höss’ admissions are thoroughly analyzed. The results are eye-opening… 402 pp., b&w ill., bibl., index. (#35)

An Auschwitz Doctor’s Eyewitness Account. By C. Mattogno. Nyiszli, a Hungarian physician, ended up at Auschwitz in 1944 as Dr. Menegle’s assistant. After the war he wrote about what he claimed to have experienced. This study presents and analyzes Nyiszli’s writings and skillfully separates truth from fabrication. 484 pp, b&w ill., bibl., index. (#37)
